Come Help Us Beat CREDIT UNIONS at Their Own Game!

Dear Fellow Banker,

ACB delivered two key victories against the powerful credit union lobby in 2005. First, Representatives Patrick McHenry (R-NC), Ed Townes (D-NY), Paul Gillmor (R-OH), Sam Johnson (R-TX), and Peter King (R-NY) worked closely with ACB and sponsored the Credit Union Charter Choice Act, a bill that reels in the rogue regulator NCUA. Secondly, Representative Bill Thomas (R-CA), Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee held a hearing on credit unions' tax exemption, where ACB was not only instrumental in getting the hearing held, but also testified on the abuses of the credit union tax exemption as well as their unfair competitive advantages.

Now in March of 2006, members of Congress need to see and hear from you! ACB has made big gains against the credit unions, but we now need a show of force. Our elected leaders must see ACB members walking the Halls of Congress. Join us for ACB's 2006 Government Affairs Conference, March 13-15 (open to ACB members ONLY) in Washington, DC at the beautiful Mandarin Oriental Hotel. This is your opportunity to have your voice heard and to convey a message of how government regulation affects the profitability of your bank. Protect your bank's bottom line ... participate in this FREE exclusive conference!

Not only will credit union issues be addressed, we will take on issues like regulatory relief, GSE reform, and uniform standards for data security. And the regulators will be focused on FDIC reform, the Basel capital proposals, accounting standards and BSA compliance, among other important issues. This conference gives you direct access to senior legislators and regulators who write the laws and regulations that affect your bank's bottom line. This is a terrific opportunity to push the community banking priorities that help make your bank more profitable.

Registration is FREE for ACB's 2006 Government Affairs Conference! We will have exciting morning presentations by Congressional leaders and the heads of the regulatory agencies. Then we will walk the Halls of Congress and visit your representatives on Capitol Hill. In addition, we will make important visits to the top regulators at the FDIC, Federal Reserve Board, FHFB, OCC and OTS.

Sign up today and be part of the banker team that beats the credit unions at their own game!

Sincerely,

Arthur R. Connelly
